

Nashville Union.

SUNDAY, APRIL 20, 1862.

U. S. Court.

The legal Term of the United States court for the District of Tennessee will commence on Monday (to-morrow) the 21st. His Honor Judge CATRON, who is now in the city, will preside. It will doubtless be one of the most deeply interesting Courts ever convened in this country.

Particular Notice.

Correspondents will confer a great favor on us by leaving their communications for inspection at our leisure. We have no time to bear communications read over by their authors. We are always glad to hear from any one who has a fact to impart or a thought to suggest, and hope to hear often from those who can contribute to the public information.

To Union Men Everywhere.

Friends, we have fairly commenced the publication of an unconditional Union journal in Nashville, and so far as it has been possible for us to have access to the post-offices of Tennessee, it has been a wonderful triumph, and has won the hearty approval of the people. But the mails are at present confined to a narrow limit, and consequently our patronage cannot grow rapidly south of the city of Nashville. We therefore ask all who feel a desire to have a loyal newspaper published in this city—one which will bring to light hundreds of crimes and outrages committed by the rebels during their ascendancy over us, and which the guilty authors believed would never be brought to light—to come up immediately and sustain us, by sending in subscriptions and advertising. It will be of infinite importance to the Union cause in this State to have an uncompromising Union journal published at the capital of the State. The task of conducting such a newspaper will be a most arduous and responsible one. But we have laid our hand to the plough, and we wish to do our work well and honorably. Will not our Union friends in all parts of the county pour in their subscriptions? Strike while the iron is hot! Let us keep the flag of the Union, of law and order, streaming defiantly in the very face of the enemy, as he sullenly retires to the Gulf.

Cavalry—By a Married Cuss.
Young man, if ever inclined you be
To enter the portals of Matrimony—
Be wary how you go view it;
If I beg of my wife not to fret and fuss,
She only replies, You're a cuss, you're a cuss,
You're a cuss, you're a cuss, to it?
No matter how tidy you ones may have been
If Madam thinks slovenlyness on she
And plenty of women see it—
The more you complain and kick up a muss
The worse she will be, till you're really acc'sed,
You're a cuss, you're a cuss, you're a cuss,
You're a cuss, you're a cuss, to it?
Look well to the less contained in my rhyme,
Or twenty to one you will rue it,
If you once submit, twill be always thus,
So, in getting a wife, pray don't get acc'sed,
Get acc'sed, get accustomed to it!

DIED.
On the 19th instant, Edmund Daniel, only boy of P. B. and Martha Jane Coleman. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral this afternoon, at three o'clock, without further invitation, on Market street, opposite Watson House. Divine services by the Rev. Dr. Fohom. April 20/11.

Casualties to Generals.

Eight rebel Generals have been killed in battle—Gen. Garnett at Carrick's Ford, Bee and Burton at Bull Run, Zollicoffer at Mill Spring, McClellan, McIntosh and Slack at Lexington, and Sidney Johnston at Pittsburg Landing. Of the Federal Generals two have been killed—Lyon and W. H. L. Wallace.

The rebel General Philip St. George Cooke committed suicide, and Gen. Grayson died a natural death. Lander is the only Federal General who has died during the war, except upon the battle field.

Wise, Floyd, Price, Bushrod Johnson, Rainey, Gladden and several other rebel Generals have been wounded more or less severely.

Hancock, Bushrod Johnson, (afterwards escaped,) Ed. L. Price, Mackell, Gant and Walker, rebel Generals, have been taken prisoners. Gen. Prentiss (Union) was captured by the rebels.

ILLNESS OF GEN. SIEGEL.—Gen. Siegel is still suffering great misery from a severe rheumatism, contracted by exposure in the field. Visitors are not admitted to his room. Even his friends do not gain access to him.
